TREASURE HUNTING IN THE SEA. At a meeting in this city on Wednesday of the stockholders of the Boston Relief and Submarine Company an interesting report was made by the directors, of the result of two expeditions of the company to recover treasures buried in the sea. One of these expeditions was to raise the vessels and other materials sunk by the Russians in the harbor of Sebastopol. In this expedition as yet only a partial success has been obtained. The two vessels of the expedition are, however, to be employed the coming season in operating upon vessels in Turkish waters. The other expedition has been sent to the Caribbean sea, under the command of Capt. Couthouy. After various misadventures, the whole of the crew being attacked with veliew tever at St. Thomas, from which they all fortunately recovered, at length the Bay of Cumana, in Venezuela, was reached, where work was at once commenced upon the sunken Spanish frigate San Pedro, and it has been continued steadily ever since .-The several divers connected with Capt. Couthouy's force spent in the aggregate about eight and a half hours under water daily, during the time they had been at work upon the wreck. After removing a vast amount of deck materials, the divers penetrated into the deckroom, where they found gun-carriages, deck furniture, &c., piled up in one large mass, making any attempt to work useless without first removing it. At this place four magnificent brass cannons were taken out, and 1.000 eleven strange boxes, supposed to be cast-400 steel; they were of the size of a candle box. but were thought by some to be platina. Silver dollars were also found at the depth of sixty feet in the water covered with mud, but 150 00 watches were here taken out, and many oth-75 00 er articles; and the divers came to the conclusion that when the explosion of the vessel took place these articles were driven from the forward part of the ship, where the bulk of the treasure undoubtedly remained. Taking this as a reasonable view of the case, they proceeded to their work with renewed vigor, and after great difficulty succeeded in clearing away the large amount of rubbish, and obtained an entrance to the hold in the forward part of the ship on the 12th of December last. About $700 in specie and another brass six-pounder were taken out at this place in a short time, also watches and many curious relies. The money found here was cemented together in rolls of $15, $20, and $100 each, and plainly showed that they must be very near the vast amount of money contained in this ship. According to the official documents, when the San Pedro went down, she contained one million Spanish dollars and a million and a half in gold, a large portion of which should be there still. The work was now fairly commenced and the directors felt greatly encouraged, and saw no reason why the stockholders should not be so. The last advices, which were up to January 1st, represented that they had been unexpectedly stopped in their labors by timber, &c., in the hold, but hoped in a short time to remove it. In the mean time Captain Couthouy had been to the capital to obtain license for his divers to dive for pearls at the Pearl bank .- Boston Traveller,
